

Wolf Pack Baseball Fall League

Copiah-Lincoln Community College would like to invite you to join us for our 2019 Fall Baseball League.

The Fall League will give athletes the opportunity to elevate their skills through competition and instruction.

The Co-Lin baseball staff and players will coach and instruct each player to help improve your baseball skills.

The numbers on each team will be kept to a minimum to allow for the most individual attention.

- Athletes that are involved in fall sports are asked to talk with their high school coach before registering for the camp.
- Camp dates are Thursday, Oct. 24th and will continue through Thursday, Nov. 14th
- Fall League will be held on Thursday nights.
- Deadline for registration is Wednesday, October 18th.
- League spots are limited to the first 48 applicants.
- Each pitcher will throw to 6 batters per night and each hitter will get at least 3 at bats per night.
- Instruction will be given before, during and after games.

Clay Smith enters his 7th season as the head coach of the Wolfpack baseball team.

Smith served 10 years as associate head coach and recruiting coordinator at Belhaven University. While at Belhaven, Smith has coached five NAIA All-Americans, 27 All-Southern States Athletic Conference players as well as the 2007 Boo Ferris Award Finalist, Thomas Royals and 2009 Boo Ferris Award Winner Craig Westcott. Since 2004, the Blazers have won six Southern States Athletic Conference championships (2004, 2006, 2007, 2009, 2010, 2011), made seven appearances in NAIA post-season tournaments, and played in the 2010 NAIA World Series. The Blazers have averaged 38 wins a season and had six 40+-win seasons. Five former Blazers have been drafted in the Major League Baseball Draft, and 12 have signed professional contracts.

Prior to his coaching stint at Belhaven, Smith was an assistant baseball coach at the University of Southern Mississippi (2000-2002) where he coached five All-Conference USA players and three freshmen All-Americans.
